PATROL OFFICER CITY OF RIVERTON, WY

THE ORGANIZATION

With a population of 11,000, the City of Riverton is located in central Wyoming with breathtaking views of the beautiful Wind River Mountains. The City of Riverton Police Department is an energetic and collaborative law enforcement team and encourages courageous conversation and fresh ideas to find innovative solutions to challenges that regularly arise in the day-to-day law enforcement activities in one of the most diverse cities in the state.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The City of Riverton is seeking entry-level or lateral-transfer Patrol Officer positions in the Riverton Police Department. The ideal candidate will be an energetic individual who values collaborative, creative thinking, and who thrives on responding to new challenges in a rapidly changing, fast-paced environment. In addition, the qualified candidate must be able to motivate and lead by example through honesty and integrity.

The Patrol Officer's work is broad in scope and requires discretionary judgment with a high degree of initiative and independence. In addition to being intuitive, professional, and highly attentive to detail, the selected candidate will have a customer service mindset and will be highly responsive to the community and Chief's directive.

- High school diploma or GED required. MUST BE 21 TO APPLY. Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice or related field preferred but not required.
- No experience required. An initial twelve months of intensive on-the-job training is provided. Regular advanced trainings required and provided to maintain P.O.S.T. certification.
- Knowledge of federal law, state statutes, and Ordinances. Certified or certifiable Peace Officer in Wyoming.

OUT-OF-STATE LATERAL APPLICANTS

Wyoming is a state that does not have a state income tax, which means that its citizens do not have to pay personal or corporate state income taxes, or retirement income taxes and enjoy low property and sales tax rates. As a growing Police Department, the City of Riverton is looking to fill specialized positions that are currently vacant.
